

Dispatcher Servlet

Front Controller Pattern

Dispatcher Servlet

Resolving Local

- Interface for web-based locale resolution strategies that allows for both locale resolution via the request and locale modification via request and response.
- This interface allows for implementations based on request, session, cookies

Resolving Themes

- Interface for web-based theme resolution strategies that allows for both theme resolution via the request and theme modification via request and response.
- This interface allows for implementations based on session, cookies, etc.

Static Resources

- Stores registrations of resource handlers for serving static resources such as images, css files
- Allows for setting cache headers optimized for efficient loading in a web browser
- Resources can be served out of locations under web application root, from the classpath, file system and others